Querida Evelyn:

Nosotros, los tres mosqueteros, llegamos a estas tierras con sed de conquista... pero pasó algo no previsto: el lugar nos conquistó a nosotros. Evelyn, has sido en estos 3 días una gran anfitriona, guía de caminatas por la montaña, guía espiritual y especialmente "una gran cocinera"

Todo lo que se pueda escribir, todas las palabras que uno pueda encontrar, no alcanzan, no son suficientes, este lugar se conoce con el olfato, con el tacto, con los sonidos y con todas las experiencias que no se cuentan, son momentos que se llevan dentro del corazón

La construcción de este proyecto, proyecto de vida, nos conmueve. Lo complejo de la vida a través de la naturaleza y el afecto, se simplifica. Esta estadía nos ha brindado la posibilidad de canalizar el amor de la amistad en este marco de belleza y hospitalidad.

Thank you Evelyn, we have really enjoyed our stay with you. The house and situation are really beautiful. The staff is extremely welcoming and the food is truly delicious.

The horse riding was interesting and exciting, sometimes more than exciting when galloping through the trees! We specially enjoyed the "mate" with Chris at the mountain viewpoints. The canters through the water in front of the house were also a highpoint. We even enjoyed the boat trip across Lago Mascardi when the horses absconded.

We'll try to come back another time.

Best wishes,

Querida gente de Peuma Hue:

Este lugar mágico resultó ser un broche de oro para el "Programa de Transformación, Evolución y Aprendizaje" que iniciamos este año. El contacto directo con la Naturaleza que encontramos en Peuma Hue hizo que las experiencias que vinimos a vivir hayan sido no sólo muy intensas, sino también inolvidables para todos.

Volvemos renovados, conectados con nuestro Ser, sabiendo que siempre podemos recurrir a los recuerdos vividos en este lugar para llenar nuevamente de Paz y Energía nuestros corazones.

What a beautiful place – with a front room view to die for! Stunning scenery and a relaxing time have made for an exceptionally comfortable stay. Above all at Peuma Hue it is the warmth of you all – Evelyn, Marcello, Chris and all of you here who have made our stay special. We have loved sharing stories – thanks for all of your help here. We are sad to leave. The fire, food and horses rides were fantastic

Peuma Hue is a special, spiritual sanctuary. It is far more than a vacation spot – it is a place of genuine connection – with nature, animals, people & ourselves. We will forever remember these moments & our “luna miel” and hold the sacredness of this place in our hearts always. Evelyn, thank you for sharing your vision & making it a reality for your guests. Your warmth, along with the kindness of the other staff, creates a true feeling of home. We leave a very happy piece of ourselves here. Thank you.

What a perfect, beautiful, serene place. It exceeded all of our expectations. There is so much peace and quiet here, but, to me, the highlight was the horseback ride. I would never have believed that I could ride after 50 years – and enjoy every minute of more than two hours on a horse. Thank you all – Evelyn, Marcello, Chris, Walter and staff for taking such good care of us (with special attention to Richard's allergies) and especially to you, Evelyn, for letting us share your piece of paradise.

We came as "typical tourists" – wanting to see every sight, every lake, every store! We leave as lovers of a magnificent spot. You have introduced us to horseback riding, lake cruises, walks on this beautiful property and to Argentinean hospitality. We will never forget our three days here – the meals and conversation, cocktails by the fire. The wonderful staff and energetic "bosses". You know how to do it right!

Muchas gracias!

First it was the silence.

Then the vision of the tall poplars introducing the lake. The mountains rising.

It was not unlike taking your seat to hear an orchestra.

There is movement everywhere. The rabbits hop, the birds scatter and call, the dogs give chase.

All the instruments, like these people of Peuma Hue, come together to make the music, the tapestry, the woven story that we take away with us: the changelings.

Peuma Hue te envuelve

En su atmósfera

De manera silenciosa;

Sus vientos juguetones

Te acercan aromas de invisibles flores

Y algunos secretos de sus bosques.

Sus caballos te transportan

Por distintas dimensiones

Y sus perros te acompañan

Como guías sabios

Hasta los más sabrosos rincones

En este amparo imperceptible

De su aire y sus olores

Paso a paso tu alma se abre

Y sin que te des cuenta siquiera

Va sanando viejos dolores

Surrounded by physical beauty and held in love, this is clearly a place of healing for people and peoples together. Dear Evelyn and everyone at Peuma Hue,

We need more time to stay at this heavenly home on earth! I have no words to express how meaningful being here was! The horse riding, extraordinary. Chris, a very special teacher and horse-whisperer. The views, the hiking, the fantastic buildings (homes) that you, Evelyn, have created. A spiritual place, a home where one can find ones own home with little effort. I asked the mountain to heal my husband and each of my own children and felt the mountain's positive energy go forth to them. I left a rock – my spirit to you – and look forward to returning with friends for more wonderful experiences. Be strong & consistent, Evelyn. You are that kind and strong person!

In all my years of riding (and owning) horses, I have never experienced such incredibly well trained and beautifully spirited animals.
