Thank you for treating us like your children and friends. We loved the incredible scenery, the thoughtful and cheerful staff, the adorable and friendly animals and the excellent food (especially the dulce de leche). Guys (all of you),

THANK YOU. Don't really need to write anything else... that's what we really want to say. You have all been legendary – making this the best break we've ever had. The people, the landscape, the food, the drink, the animals, the atmosphere. We promise to tell everyone who'll listen; about this phenomenal piece of paradise we've found – and one day Evelyn – we'll be back (although if we can match one birthday, one anniversary and one engagement – we'll be pushed!).

Dearest Evelyn,

Thank you thank you thank you!

We got your gorgeous messages when we were in France, just before and on the day we got married. It was so fantastic to hear from you and receive the love and warmth all the way from Peuma Hue.

You were mentioned in the speeches, as Si recounted the story of how we got engaged in the most fabulous setting imaginable, the waterfall, the dogs, the asado all got a mention too!

We will be back to celebrate an anniversary with you - before too long we hope.

Hope that all is well with you and the team, much love to you all.

I've attached a couple of photos, although we've not got the official ones back yet, these hopefully give you a flavour of the day – and just how much we were grinning!

Patagonia and Peuma Hue seem light years away from where I live in the Far East in Hong Kong and Malaysia. But the special spirit of this place of dreams: protected by your own sacred mountain, energized by your own special waters and beloved by the extraordinary care and attention given by Evelyn, Sophie, Marcelo, Caroline and all the staff – has traversed thousands of miles of distance, time and space for me.

I know I will return to walk up D'Agostini mountain to drink its wonderful glacial spring waters, I know I will return to feel the energy of the Coihue trees and Peuma Hue itself and I know I will return to hear the heartbreaking squeal of your Patagonia winds! Many, Many thanks Evelyn for sharing Peuma Hue with us!!

Well Evelyn and your fantastic staff... What can we say?

We arrived 7th November, wind, rain and later snow. Jude and I thought what are we doing here at Peuma Hue?!!

The next morning we knew why this is called the "Place of Dreams". The weather had changed and we were catered for by the wonderful staff here at Peuma Hue. Everything has been wonderful! Food, horse riding, fishing. This is not a place of dreams, it must be heaven.

Thank you all and we will be back!

An experience I had with my ten year old son yesterday sums our collective feelings of this spiritually moving place. As he and I walked across the lawn from the lake in the late afternoon, we looked to the spire rocks above and he said to me, "this feels like Heaven..... I hope Heaven is this nice....". We feel blessed to have experienced such a pristine world of the cleanest air, purest water and fantastic unspoiled vistas. You all are wonderful stewards to some of the last places on earth that have not suffered from the ever dangerous behaviors of man. Thank you for sharing, thank you for embracing our children's infinite wonder at a place so beautiful, and thank you for your generous and truly genuine warm welcome. It is our dream to return to share another brisk night, moonlight glowing in the stream, the lake and illuminating the fields of snow high above. Simple magic on earth.

I don't want to go! Already planned when I'm coming back and I can't wait. I was supposedly working while here, running a Yoga retreat, but I feel like I've been on vacation with old friends. Never have I brought a group to do a workshop or retreat to a place where I felt so supported or with such a shared vision of the experience I would like for my students to have. Every wish was granted, half of the time before it was even spoken. From Evelyn the owner to Samuel the gardener and everyone in between (whom I'm too scared to name for fear of forgetting someone special!) you truly went above and beyond and could not have been more accommodating or warmer. Bobby, you hold a special place in my heart, you funny-looking mutt.

In this place of incredible natural beauty you have managed to create something awe-inspiring. For perfect strangers from around the world to make lasting connections over canapés and Scrabble is very rare. At first I thought it was the side-effect of the (delicious) wine, but it soon became clear that the warmth exuded by the hosts – the way you treat guests like family members – melts cynicism within hours of arrival. And of course the rainbows, kittens, waterfalls and foal don't hurt....

Thank you! I hope to be back soon.

As we start out looking forward to all the adventure our life together will bring, you have given Alex and I a fantastic bench-mark to spring from. Though we have been here for only a few days, the wonderful natural relaxing environment you have created has not only relaxed our bodies and minds, but also opened them to the wonders of the nature around your lake paradise. You have looked after us better than we could have imagined and our special thanks go to Chris for giving Alex back her confidence on a horse (she is in love with Moreira!) To our extended family at Peuma Hue!

Thank you very much for an absolutely magical time here at your piece of paradise! Thank you for opening up your home to us, and sharing this stunning place with us. We've learned a lot about ourselves, and about the animals and plants. And for that, we'll always be grateful. We became part of your family in a very short time and decided to stay for 3 weeks – what a great start to our 3 month holiday in Argentina!

Everyone employed at Peuma Hue are very special, but we would like to thank Adriana – for noticing the small things and always helping with a big smile on her face. Thanks also to Evelyn – for your guidance & wisdom, I don't think you realize what a difference you made in our lives..... we're very grateful for that! Carolina, Marcelo, Maru and and everyone else – we'll miss you all! Who knows, maybe one day I'll write a book about our experience, and your names will be in it! We've had four great days here at Peuma Hue, all of which have been very relaxing and very enjoyable.

Great scenery, accommodation and food too.

We enjoyed the walks along the lake, the trip to Tronador and the glaciers.

This is a very peaceful place and we will cherish the great memories from here, of relaxing at Cabaña del Arroyo.

See you again in Patagonia

Evelyn, Marce, Caro y todos los que hacen Peuma:

Después de cinco años de conocernos llegó el momento de vivenciar personalmente todo lo escuchado a través de los relatos de huéspedes. La sorpresa fue mejor aún. No hay palabras para describir todo lo que es Peuma. Simplemente "excelente y único". Toda la calidez de un hogar, atención a cada detalle, la mejor predisposición SIEMPRE y la alegría de un grupo de trabajo que disfruta el día a día en este lugarcito mágico. Muchísimas gracias y espero volver muy pronto.

Un fuerte abrazo a todos!

We all came for one week of skiing and fun with Craig.

We discovered Peuma Hue on one of our summer trips with Craig. We decided this is a very, very special place.

So Mike & I re-newed our wedding vows in the Chapel. It was so wonderful: The music, the tango show and the Mountain Cabin.

Thank you so much for a place that is second to none in the world.

This is our heaven.

Queridos Evelyn y Familia de Peuma Hue,

“The only way to say goodbye is to dream of coming back!”

This has been one of our most memorable “Mom-Daughter” vacations! Peuma Hue is an amazing place, with incredible beauty, a fantastic team that feels like visiting good old friends and incredible food!!! The activities you helped us organize were so much fun; some went beyond what we both thought we would do!!! Muchísimas gracias.

We also loved the evenings when we all shared the stories of the day. We met amazing people. Kerry, Hudson and Emily became instant friends! Ariel, Grace and Roni; and Tom (thanks for educating us on argentinian rock music Ariel and Tom!).

Finally, I came to Bariloche to show Camila the beauty of my birth country. Peuma Hue showed us beauty, friendship and that unique warmth & care that will travel back with Camila and me.

So long

Will see you again!

Hudson, Kerry & Emily Landsman

PS:

We will remember FABULOUS activities you recommended: hiking from top of Cerro Cathedral along the ridge, into the forest and down the valley where we were met by the dinghy with hot coffee and cakes!; the hike up to the refugio on Mt Tronador; the rafting trip; the hike in the rain up to your favorite waterfall. We will also remember new friends from Peuma Hue: you, the staff and the other guests, especially Merle & Brian, Marcella & Camilla. Thank you and we hope our paths will cross again

We hope to be back in the future!

What can one say? It is hard to describe this place and all the lovely people who are part of it. It surpasses all expectations, and does so with such grace, warmth, beauty and great calm. The landscape, air, sustenance (food & wine!) are spectacular. And the Cathedral hike was out of this world – a must do to see the incredible diversity of this stunning area. So, adjectives don't

Dear Evelyn and Peuma Hue team:

This note isn't so much a goodbye as a thank you. A thank you to all who make this estancia come alive with ease; but also and more on a personal note, a thank you to Evelyn. Graham and I might have been a small part of your life this past 5 days, but you have been a great part of ours. Evelyn, the hike and the energy you helped us to reconnect with, was a great accomplishment.

This memory will be with us for a lifetime. We want to thank each member of the staff for helping us somewhere along the way during the stay to see the beauty and to connect with the power of God's creation, evidenced all around whether in the people, the green mountains, the running water, the gentle sun, the breeze and of course the animals. All of which were synchronized in harmony to create the influential force of Peuma Hue. We are lucky to be a part of this experience and as we leave you to go back to city living, we would very much appreciate you making room for us to return in the future.

Dear Evelyn,

Thank you for Peuma Hue, a culmination of your dreams, and for sharing it with us. It is truly a special place of peace which permeates everything and everyone there, Your staff are all personable and helpful with special mention of Valeria who has a wonderful way about her. All our meals were delicious – asado was particularly memorable – and served on lovely linen and tableware.

The highlight of our stay to me was our hike to the waterfall with you to explain various interesting landscape features like a hugging tree, the sofa and lotus stone. I could feel nature's pulse there.

More thanks than we can say.....

Dear Evelyn (and Mara, Alpha, Gandhi, Zorro and the little black dog whose name we never got but think it might have been Pichin?!), Marcello, Carolina, Chris (and Pepe, Chima, Viento and the other beautiful horses), plus all the other staff including Val, Hernan, Melissa and Dolores (whose cooking was outstanding!) and all the ones who made our breakfasts, lunches (packed and in the house!) and dinners so well, plus everyone else who made our holiday such an utter joy and delight (and made our cabin so clean and tidy every day after all the dust!),

We absolutely fell in love with Argentina but more specifically, especially Peuma-Hue. It is very, very rare that we would ever want to go back to the same area twice as there is so much to see and do around the world, but you have created such a magical place that we are already looking to see how quickly we can get back. I cannot ever remember Maggie having tears in her eyes as we left any place before and the fact that Evelyn and Val and the dogs came out to say goodbye was such a lovely touch – we were both emotional on the way to the airport.

We seriously miss you all and the most idyllic surroundings – the trekking, horse riding, canoeing and rafting could not have been better and they are all so well prepared so we always felt extremely well looked after and protected but really able to partake of the natural surroundings and be peaceful in the countryside. The fact that you personally arranged for a lunar eclipse was beyond the call of duty!! I personally will never, ever forget the sight of so

We have been telling everyone about our experiences at Peuma Hue and the fact that we have got to get back there so I am sure that the word about your clear philosophy, your beautiful location, your open, helpful, welcoming manner and your lovely personalities are going to spread far and wide. Just wanted to send a note of thanks to everyone at Peuma Hue -- we had an absolutely wonderful time staying with you!

We really appreciate all the thoughtful effort you put in to make our honeymoon so special -- everything was beautiful, and we wish you all the best.

Evelyn, we somehow forgot to sign the guest book before we left (we were in a rush), so if you want to paste this in as a substitute, please feel free...actually, we will expect to see it in there next time we see you!

Anyway, thanks again!

Evelyn: Thank you for a most wonderful stay. Teresa and I were trying to think of superlatives to describe this wonderful place, but the only we come up with us is "superlative". We will definitely return, and I hope to bring my daughter to sample the natural delights of Argentina and particularly Peuma Hue.

All the best,

Place of dreams, slice of heaven, the most accommodating staff we have ever experienced. Magical grounds... We wish you must success in the promotion of this lodge. Not everyone deserves to stay here, only those who can be open to such enormous beauty... which we many. We hope to return one day soon but in many ways we will never leave... Peuma Hue is definitely one of the wonders of the world.

Thanking you

What a wonderful place!

We will always have Peuma Hue in our memories as the place where Andy proposed to Amy, and what a magical place to have that happen. The combination of the scenery, activities, people, animals and wonderful vegetarian meals made this a real find.

Thank you for everything!

Evelyn,

We knew we would like our days at Peuma Hue... but LOVE is more accurate! You have created a warm & welcoming home away from home. We played hard and rested easily and incredibly. Made treasured memories with our family & friends.

We will see you again in the near future.
