Dear Peuma Hue Family,

Thank you for your hospitality. We loved our excursions, the hikes and the rides. The food was awesome and the pisco sours to die for.

We did check Jake's bag – no 4-footed creatures were “accidentally” taken.

Thank you for sharing this special place with us,

Queridos Evelyn y todos, todos los habitantes de Peuma Hue, gracias por esta excepcional experiencia de modelo de vida. Sí, porque no fue solamente una estadía en un lugar donde la naturaleza y la casa se integran en un “todo” maravillosamente bello, sino – y sobre todo – una vivencia de cómo deben ser las relaciones humanas: cálidas, acogedoras, generosas, gentiles, disponibles, discretas y sencillas. Todo fue exquisito: casa, comida, parque y, sobre todo, el trato humano.

Uno llegaba a una casa como huésped. No como cliente. Gracias!

PD: Ah! La habitación “Master Suite” con su jacuzzi, es excepcional también! Suspendeda como un barco en el medio de la naturaleza.

Peuma Hue,

A great place to visit, but also a great place to stay. A stay of growth, pleasure, confidence and friendships. Not only as a guest, but also as one of the volunteers here, I need to say that this place changed my life. Hope to come back, maybe next year, maybe in 20 years, but I will come back to the place that changed who I am, in a good way!

Xxx and good luck to all my co-workers, especially the horses

Peuma Hue – a very special place set aside with beauty, peace and tranquility... one of the most memorable places we have had the privilege of visiting. Heartfelt thanks to Evelyn and all her team for such a warm welcome and wonderful hospitality and care during our stay. We look forward to returning....

Meu filho da www.specialtrip.com, me disse: “mãe você não pode deitar de fazer este programa nos Lagos Andinos começando no Peuma Hue, mesmo que não possa praticar esportes”. Que feliz indicação! Raramente um contato tão íntimo com a natureza em ambiente tão acolhedor poderia proporcionar a mim e a minha amiga M. Beatriz Gouvêa, momentos tão agradáveis com imagens que não sairão mais de nossa mente.

Espero voltar, até breve, com um muito respeito e admiração pelo que foi aqui realizado

Nos encantó el lugar, en especial la parte de afuera, los árboles con frutos rojos, la huerta con lavanda, las montañas, etc. Los vamos a recomendar, además la cabaña que nos tocó es super linda,

Very simply Peuma Hue is a wonderful example of understated excellence. Having known Reuben all my life – 65 plus years – I expected no less. He complements Eve well as her understudy! Eve is clearly master of her trade.

We are here with the Morehouses and it was a wonderful refuge from the everyday life of traffic and noise, TV and pretension. The stars and quiet (except for the birds!) are not found everywhere. We also enjoyed conversations with the host and hostess and the varied guests. Maybe we will return, but if not, we have good memories.

Peuma Hue has been an idyllic spot. The lake, the mountains are majestic and soothing. Most of the time, all one hears are the birds. The trails are enchanting and offer a variety of terrain – rocky, treed, hilly, water features – a continual delight of the senses.

The staff is an amazing group of people from all over the world. Each brings a warmth and an enthusiasm to the estancia which is quite personal and unique. They are very personable and encouraging. They have, for the most part, experienced the activities of the area and can offer a personal perspective. Evelyn and Reuben were exceptional guides. The food was always beautifully prepared and served the menus never repeating, the portions just right.

All in all a great experience. Thank you Evelyn for creating such enchantment and sharing it with your guests,

Muchas gracias por habernos hecho sentir espléndidamente, no sólo por el entorno natural, sino por la calidez humana de todos ustedes. Hemos de hacer especial mención a la cabalgata en compañía de Cris y al carisma de Paula hacia los niños. Felicitaciones, Evelyn, por lo que aquí has desarrollado,

In an incredibly beautiful landscape, we entered a house by the lakeside, where the beauty of the country never was out of sight: An almost perfect English lawn, the poplars, the lake, the mountains...

The vacation turned out to be horse-riding holidays where we learned to be at ease with the aimable animals once more under the watchful eyes of their loving mum Chris.

We were given a treat with the wonderful food, the massages by Ronnie and the helpful advice by Jessie to get the most out of our time.

Eve creates a unique space for people from all continents to meet and become friends, supported by Reuben, her love.

¡Cómo Eve mete más onda en un lugar que ya tiene tanta onda...!

If you crossed Buenos Aires and heaven, you would end up in Peuma Hue. The staff of 22 moves everything to meet your every need and want. Evie and Reuben also alert you to things and possibilities that you didn't know you might have wanted. The grounds are beautiful; nature is your friend. Hiking, horses, kayaking and massages are just some of the ways to lose yourself in paradise. My husband and I are travelling through our "bucket list", but Peuma Hue is definitely a place to come back to. We just wish for a straight flight from Dallas to Bariloche.

"I can't get over the fast pace here. I'm so strung out" – he said in contrast. A lie! – peace, quiet, friends, great meals and the natural beauty. So nice to be here

Such a beautiful place... not enough days here. Husband off fishing each day – he said terrific. For me, trekking in am, horseback riding in pm & Yoga before dinner. Which bring to mind the delicious meals – perfect size, layers of flavors... heaven. Thank you for sharing and your wonderful staff.

Dearest Eveyn & all the staff of Peuma Hue!

Never in our wildest imagination did we expect to be in a true "Heaven on Earth" when booking our trip here. Our children were complaining about being "dragged" to Argentina only to be crying (literally) about having to leave. The best compliment we can give is that all five of us are begging to come back next year! ☺. You have created a beautiful "home away from home" where perfect strangers gather & become friends. It was a most magical time to be with you – especially in the turn of the New Year. Complete with a classical music concert & full moon. Wow.

A piece of our hearts remain with you & all your animals (kittens were the highlight for the kiddos ☺); and we hope to return very soon.

With love,
